

Hood's Pills

Do not gripe nor irritate the alimentary canal. They act gently yet promptly, cleanse effectually and give comfort.

THE INSPECTION OF THE MILITARY

Only Three of the Howitzers Failed to Appear.

WILL ELECT COL. ANDERSON.

He Will Be Chosen to Command the Seventieth Regiment—Captains Mills and Bossieux Spoken of for Major—Military Notes.

The Howitzers and Companies B, Walker Light Guard, and H, Old Dominion Guard, of the Seventieth Regiment, were inspected last night.

A large crowd of spectators were at the Howitzers' Armory. There were scores of ladies present. The artillerymen presented a splendid appearance. Major Sol. Cutchins, representing the Inspector-General, and Capt. James E. Phillips, Inspector on the Staff of Major W. E. Simons, Commandant of the First Battalion of Artillery, were the inspectors. Sixty men were in line, there being only three absent, and these were kept away by indisposition. After the inspection there was a dance which lasted until a late hour.

Col. J. Lane Stern inspected the company at the First Regimental Armory. There were many visitors present. Company H, formerly D of the First, had forty men present and fourteen were absent. Company B had sixty-one in line and nine were absent.

Col. Stern will inspect the company at Farmville to-night, and he will inspect the Blues to-morrow night.

TO ELECT COL. ANDERSON.

There is no doubt now that Col. George Wayne Anderson will be elected colonel of the Seventieth Regiment at the meeting of the line officers to be held at the old First Regimental Armory in this city at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

His friends have been in communication with those who will vote at the meeting and it has been ascertained that Colonel Anderson is practically the unanimous choice of the captains and lieutenants.

It is believed that Colonel Anderson will yield to the wishes of his friends and accept.

Colonel Thomas S. Keller, of Charlottesville, or Major P. C. Scruggs, of Lynchburg, will be elected lieutenant-colonel.

Should Colonel Anderson accept, he is expected to notify the meeting while it is in session and also to designate the companies that will form the three battalions. The officers of each battalion will then meet and immediately elect a major.

CONTEST FOR MAJOR.

Capt. C. Gray Bossieux and Capt. Morgan R. Mills are being talked of for major of the Richmond battalion. Each one has staunch friends. It is not known that either one is an avowed candidate, but military people who were interviewed last night thought that either gentleman would accept.

DIABOLICAL PLOT.

Murder Probably Committed to Get Insurance Money.

CHICAGO, October 8.—Wm. Insurance upon her life amounting to $12,000, Marie Defenbach, aged twenty-three, died August 25th in a boarding-house on Leslie Avenue under conditions which the police believe indicate a plot to swindle an insurance company and two insurance societies, if they do not point to murder.

Upon bench warrants issued by Judge Gibbons three persons, said to be implicated in the case—Dr. August M. Unger, Frank H. Smiley and F. Wardland Brown—have been arrested. The latter is assistant manager of a detective agency. He was arrested to-day on his return from Virginia.

The three men under arrest were arraigned before Judge Gibbons, and in default of $15,000 bail each, were committed to jail.

The detectives believe that a conspiracy was concocted, and that Miss Defenbach was originally one of the quartette of alleged conspirators. She had expected that her death was to be faked, and that another body was to play the passive role of corpse, but instead of that real death came to her.

THE CAPTURE CONFIRMED.

Nothing Definite Known of the Sixty Men of Twenty-ninth Regiment.

MANILA, October 5.—(Via Hong Kong.) The report of the capture of about sixty men of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, on Marinduque Island, is confirmed by cablegrams from MacArthur to Kempner, from Marinduque Island. Nothing definite has been learned regarding the captives, except that they had entirely disappeared. Marinduque is a small island within forty miles of Luzon. It is said that the rebels have conveyed the captives to Luzon.

Stops the Cough and Works Off The Cold.

Laxative Broom-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, No Pay. Price, 25 cents.

AT BERRY'S.

SHOES

If our store news fails to interest the whole family, it must be our advertising writer's fault; for we have the goods—

Take SHOES; we have the newest, the best and the largest variety to be found in Richmond.

If you want points on what's in vogue this fall for men's and boys' wear just look at our stock.

Boys' Shoes, $1.50 and up.

Men's Shoes, $2.00 and up.

At Berry's.

SHOES

HEAD TO FOOT OUTFITTERS

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

WAS NEAR A RIOT.

The Whites and Blacks Fight in Florida.

(By Associated Press.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 8.—A special to the Times-Union and Citizen from St. Augustine says:

"What threatened to terminate in a serious fight between a party of young white men and a number of colored men was checked in St. Augustine last night by the timely arrival of the police."

A young man was walking on San Marco Avenue with two young ladies, when he was insulted by a colored man, according to his own statement. A fight followed in which a score of white and colored men took part. Police officers and the weapon used, and some telling blows were dealt. City and county officials were soon on the spot and the riot speedily settled.

D. APPLETON AND CO.

The Firm Incorporated With a Capital of Three Million.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 8.—D. Appleton & Co., of New York, with a capital of $3,000,000, was incorporated with the Secretary of State to-day. The purpose for which it is to be formed are to purchase, acquire and carry on the book printing and publishing and other business of D. Appleton & Co., the Appleton Manufacturing Company, and Johnston Company, and to continue and carry on publications heretofore owned and carried on by said corporations.

BLOODSHED IN CHICAGO.

Organized Gang Attacked March of Republicans.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, October 8.—Bloodshed followed in the trail of Chauncey Depew and his three-mile escort of Republican marchers, which was broken up by a mob of men who turned the corner of Sagewick Street and Chicago Avenue it was charged on by an organized gang of men who had concealed themselves in the dark recesses of an unlighted alley.

The rioters were repulsed finally by the marchers, but not until four or five of the Republican marchers had been injured, some of them quite seriously. Many of the marchers were on less hurt than their uniforms ruined. The men who precipitated the riot escaped.

PROBABLY ANDRE.

Man Thought to Be He Was Killed by Savages.

(By Associated Press.)

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 8.—Harry Knapper, a newspaper man, has returned from a trip to the Hudson Bay country, which, with nine white men and eight Indians, he sailed six hundred miles up the coast of that great inland sea.

Mr. Knapper was assured by Eskimos, whom he met that a "sky-boat" had come into the region on the extreme northeast shore of the bay two years before, that it came to the ground and that the savages who inhabit that country had killed the white men in it.

This he believes was Andre's polar expedition.

CAMPAIGN OF ILLINOIS.

Roosevelt Terminated His Tour Last Night.

(By Associated Press.)

EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL., Oct. 8.—Governor Roosevelt to-night concluded his campaign tour of Illinois, speaking in this city to the largest audience ever assembled here since the McKinley-Prescott campaign of four years ago. Various Republican organizations of this city and St. Louis vied with each other in doing honor to the Vice-presidential candidate.

Governor Roosevelt betrayed no token of weariness. He made a speech in many towns in the State en route, most notable of which was at Springfield. There the Governor refrained from discussing finance, trusts and such topics, devoting himself exclusively to the life achievements of Abraham Lincoln.

OBITUARY.

William T. Glenn.

Mr. William T. Glenn died shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday, from apoplexy, at the residence of a relative, Mr. W. W. Haley, on South Cherry Street.

Mr. Glenn was for twenty-five years employed at the Locomotive Works. He lived at No. 80 West Cary Street, having lately moved from Taylor Street. He was a member of Grove Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Glenn is survived by a son, James Glenn, and a sister, Mrs. Miller, of No. 345 West Cary Street, and by three brothers, John Glenn, of this city; George Glenn, of Hampton, and Alex Glenn, of Zanesville, Ohio.

The funeral will take place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, from Grove Avenue Baptist Church. The interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery.

Mrs. H. H. Young.

Mrs. Harriet H. Young, widow of J. D. H. Young, died at the residence of her son-in-law, T. T. Mitchell, No. 314 West Cary Street, Sunday evening at ten minutes to 8 o'clock, in the seventy-fourth year of her age. Mrs. Young was a consistent member of Park Place Church.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the residence.

George G. Blanchard.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, October 8.—George R. Blanchard, former commissioner of the Joint Traffic Association, died at his home here to-day, after an illness of several weeks from a complication of diseases, including nervous prostration and erysipelas.

Mr. Blanchard was a railroad man all his life. He began as a clerk in the employ of the Cincinnati and Chicago Road. He was subsequently connected with the Ohio and Mississippi, the Central Ohio, Baltimore and Ohio and Erie Roads, becoming vice-president of the Erie in 1884. He became a commissioner of the Central Traffic Association and then chairman in 1896, and was given charge of the Central Traffic Association until it was dissolved.

He was regarded as one of the highest authorities on railroad rates in the country.

Mrs. Inman H. Payne.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

WARRINGTON, VA., Oct. 8.—The funeral of Mrs. Payne, who died at her home here Saturday night, took place this afternoon from the Episcopal Church, the rector, Rev. George W. Nelson, officiating.

Mrs. Payne was the wife of Inman H. Payne, by whom she is survived, together with the following children: Markham B. Payne, the place George H. Payne, Ed John M. Payne, of Baltimore; Inman H. Payne, Jr., of Norfolk; Bernard W. Payne, of Columbus, O.; Julian D. Payne, of New Orleans; Mrs. Charles Crutcheff, of Montana, and Mrs. M. B. Hardin, of Clemson College, S. C.

DEATHS.

BROOKS.—Entered into rest Sunday October 7th, 1906, Mrs. LUCY BROOKS, in the 83rd year of her age. Funeral from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy G. Lewis, No. 74 North Ninth Street, at 2 P. M. Tuesday. Friends invited.

"Absent from the body; present with the Lord."

JURY.—Died, NETTIE B., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lizzie Mertz and granddaughter of John and Nettie Wolf. Funeral to-morrow (Wednesday) at 3 o'clock from St. Andrews Episcopal church, located in Hollywood Cemetery.

"MILITANT" the STRAIGHT-FRONT Style of THOMSON'S "Glove-Fitting" Corset is unexcelled in quality, durability, comfort and fashion.

Turn them over and see how they're made. All seams run around the body.

For sale by all dealers throughout the United States. A handsome catalogue mailed free on application to Geo. C. Batcheller & Co., 345 B'way, New York.

FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING DRY GOODS STORES.

BASE-BALL.

Scores Yesterday.

Pittsburg, 8-8; St. Louis, 0-2. Cincinnati, 13-9; Chicago, 4-1. Philadelphia-Brooklyn, rain. New York-Boston, rain.

Scores Sunday.

Pittsburg, 3; St. Louis, 2. Chicago, 4-2; Cincinnati, 3-7.

Standing of the Clubs.

Brooklyn 52 509
Philadelphia 51 507
Cincinnati 49 483
Boston 48 483
Chicago 44 473
St. Louis 42 456
Cincinnati 42 456
New York 38 430

Where They Play To-Day.

Cincinnati at Chicago.

(By Associated Press.)

Cincinnati, 13-9; Chicago, 4-1.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—A double header with Cincinnati closed the season here to-day, the visitors taking both games. Attendance, 350.

First game—

Scores by innings: R. H. E.
Chicago 10 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 3 1
Cincinnati 1 4 2 0 0 3 0 0 1 3 14 4

Batteries—Mencife and Donahue; Hahn and Kahoe. Umpire—O'Day. Time, 1:45.

Second game—

Scores by innings: R. H. E.
Cincinnati 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 7
Chicago 0 1 1 0 1 1 5 0 9 11 4

Batteries—Taylor and Dexter; Phillips and Kahoe. Umpire—O'Day. Time, 1:40.

Called on account of darkness after two out in the first half in the ninth.

Rain Stopped the Game.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—Philadelphia and Brooklyn were to have played two games here to-day, but a heavy shower stopped the first game when each side had scored one run.

Pittsburg, 8-8; St. Louis, 0-2.

ST. LOUIS, MO., October 8.—Pittsburg easily took the double-header to-day. Wadell pitched sensational ball in the first game and received perfect support. The second game was a listless one. Attendance, 320.

First game. Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Pittsburg 2 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 8 11 6

Batteries—Jones and Griger; Wadell and Zimmer. Time, 1:30. Umpire, Emslie.

Second game. Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 7 4
Pittsburg 2 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 4 8 6

Batteries—Smith and Griger; Tannehill and Zimmer. Time, 1:45. Umpire, Emslie.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Names of Ball Players Reserved for Next Season.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, October 8.—President N. E. Young announced that the following reservations, under national agreement, of ball players, have been made for the season of 1907:

Virginia League: Norfolk—P. J. Conroy, George Keller, Ben Benge, S. J. Sullivan, James A. Smith, E. M. Gilligan, W. P. Stuch, Henry Dezel, P. Hempleman, Ike Durrett, Ed. High, Red Gilligan.

Want Schorn Released.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, October 8.—Application for the release of Frederick Schorn, now in the hands of the Federal court, growing out of the arrest at the time his sister, Kate, was murdered, was made to-day before Justice Newburger by his attorney. It was heard on Wednesday.

The plea for release is on the ground that two terms of court have been passed since his arrest without his being brought to trial.

THE SUN DO MOVE.

Rev. John Jasper Preached His Famous Sermon Sunday.

A congregation that crowded the church heard the Rev. John Jasper preach Sunday. His famous sermon, "The Sun Do Move," was probably the sixth Mount Zion Church had never before such a crowd within its walls. The regular negro attendants at the service were routed, and the greater portion of the building was occupied by whites. Pulpit, pew, aisle, gallery, were crowded to their utmost limits.

The Rev. John Jasper began his sermon about 12 o'clock and preached for an hour, delighting the crowd with his arguments. When he started to prove that the sun actually did move, he referred the congregation to Joshua, xii, 13, 14:

"Then spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel: Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon, and thou, Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon: and the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, and the day was prolonged unto the day after."

"And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

second game was a listless one. Attendance, 320.

First game. Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Pittsburg 2 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 8 11 6

Batteries—Jones and Griger; Wadell and Zimmer. Time, 1:30. Umpire, Emslie.

Second game. Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 7 4
Pittsburg 2 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 4 8 6

Batteries—Smith and Griger; Tannehill and Zimmer. Time, 1:45. Umpire, Emslie.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Names of Ball Players Reserved for Next Season.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, October 8.—President N. E. Young announced that the following reservations, under national agreement, of ball players, have been made for the season of 1907:

Virginia League: Norfolk—P. J. Conroy, George Keller, Ben Benge, S. J. Sullivan, James A. Smith, E. M. Gilligan, W. P. Stuch, Henry Dezel, P. Hempleman, Ike Durrett, Ed. High, Red Gilligan.

Want Schorn Released.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, October 8.—Application for the release of Frederick Schorn, now in the hands of the Federal court, growing out of the arrest at the time his sister, Kate, was murdered, was made to-day before Justice Newburger by his attorney. It was heard on Wednesday.

The plea for release is on the ground that two terms of court have been passed since his arrest without his being brought to trial.

THE SUN DO MOVE.

Rev. John Jasper Preached His Famous Sermon Sunday.

A congregation that crowded the church heard the Rev. John Jasper preach Sunday. His famous sermon, "The Sun Do Move," was probably the sixth Mount Zion Church had never before such a crowd within its walls. The regular negro attendants at the service were routed, and the greater portion of the building was occupied by whites. Pulpit, pew, aisle, gallery, were crowded to their utmost limits.

The Rev. John Jasper began his sermon about 12 o'clock and preached for an hour, delighting the crowd with his arguments. When he started to prove that the sun actually did move, he referred the congregation to Joshua, xii, 13, 14:

"Then spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel: Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon, and thou, Moon, in the Valley of Aijalon: and the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, and the day was prolonged unto the day after."

"And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse 5, you read: The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ariseth."

"If you don't read those very words, then spit in my face."

"And all through the Book you find such sayings as these." The Rev. John Jasper was entirely satisfied with his view of the case, and he closed his sermon by saying: "And in Ecclesiastes, chapter i, verse